Rams crown two at H-10 conference tournament

ATLANTIC - Glenwood's Vinny Mayberry and C.J Carter brought home individual titles and the Rams placed third at the Hawkeye 10 Conference wrestling meet Saturday in Atlantic.

The host Trojans had three individual champions and won the team title with 238 points. Creston was third with 228 followed by Glenwood's 160.5 points.

"I think our kids wrestled well," said Glenwood coach Tucker Weber. "We were open at three weights, it's hard to get some points and compete against full teams when you're down three but points. He wrestled well." we did wrestle well. Some of our kids beat a couple kids they lost to earlier this year."

Mayberry was repeat conference champion after winning the 106-pound division as a freshman last season. He won 113 this year with a 17-2, technical fall win over Council Bluff St. Albert's Christian Williams. Mayberry notched a pair of pins over Atlantic's Taye Jordan our most improved wresand Red Oak's Brandon Erp to reach the finals.

"Williams is ranked at 120 and he dropped down to 113," Weber said of Mayberry's finals match. "They wrestled earlier in the year and Vinney beat him by eight or nine last time so it's always good to see him beat kids by more Carter, the No. 2 ranked 195-pounder in the state, also pinned his first two opponents – Clarinda's Brayden Northwehr and Council Bluffs Lewis Central's Dillon Woods – to reach the finals. In the championship match, the Ram junior won a hard fought 5-2 decision over Denison's Jaxson Hildrebrand.

"C.J. is probably one of tlers from last year as far as opening up and putting more skills in his arsenal," Weber said. "He's wrestled the kids from Denison once this year already and probably 10 or 11 times in their high school careers. When you

Girls wrestling added as a sanctioned sport for 2022-23

The Iowa Girls High School Athletic Union Board of Directors has voted unanimously to sanction girls wrestling as the organization's 11th

The vote was made at the IGHSAU's Jan. 12 board of directors meeting and was announced prior to the start of the Iowa Wrestling Coaches and Officials Girls State Wrestling Tournament in Coralville.

The first IGHSAU-sanctioned season will take place during the 2022-23 school

"We think there's a great foundation in place for the success of this sport and we intend to fully support these Iowa Girls as they continue their pursuit of championships," said IGHSAU Executive Director Jean Berg-

"As the sanctioning process unfolded, the Board was able to quickly approve this new opportunity for our girls and schools across the state. The increase in participation, the growth in youth wrestling and the willingness of our schools to commit to the sport all factored into this decision."

The IGHSAU intends to follow the National Federation of State High School Associations (NFHS) wrestling rules and guidelines.

The next steps in this process include meeting with an appointed IGHSAU wrestling advisory committee this winter to finalize details for this roll-out year that include format for the season, classification system, weight classes, and postseason/tournament details.

Glenwood wrestling coach Tucker Weber, who has a handful of girls on this year's boy's squad, has long been in favor of the move.

"It needed to happen with the sport growing so much in our state," he said. "Girls wrestling girls and guys wrestling guys gives each gender a fair opportunity to compete."

To date, 58 schools have committed to sponsoring girls wrestling programs in Iowa. The latest data from trackwrestling.com shows 1,018 girls participating in high school wrestling, represented by over 185 Iowa schools.

Wrestling becomes the 11th sport to be sanctioned by the IGHSAU and the first since bowling was added in 2007. Iowa is the 34th state association to sanction girls' wrestling.

■ Glenwood's Camden adds to career three-point record with school scoring title

It seems only fitting the record-breaking bucket was a three-

Glenwood's Madison Camden, already the school's all-time leader with 183 three-pointers and counting, added to her personal records last Tuesday by becoming the school's all-time scoring leader in 5-on-5. Her three-pointer in the third quarter of the Rams' 79-40 win over Creston gave her 1,296 points, surpassing previous leader Morgan Lucy.

Camden finished her night with 31 points – she hit 7-of-10 threes in the game – and a place in the Ram record books.

My parents and friends told me I was 25 points away last night and they wanted me to get it at a home game because they thought it would be special in front of the home fans," Camden said.

Coach Brian Rasmussen agreed. Just after Camden took a skip pass from Danika Arnold and knocked down the corner three, the coach called a timeout, and it was announced she had indeed broken the scoring record.

"He gave me a hug so that was pretty sweet of him," Camden said of Rasmussen.

Lucy, a star center for the Rams from 2009-2012 before going to play basketball at Southwest Baptist University, remains the school's all-time leading rebounder. She was in attendance Tuesday night, and she too hugged Camden after the game.

"I've always looked up to her as a player," Camden said. "I saw her play a couple times when I was younger. I took a picture with her after the game."

Rasmussen first saw Camden play basketball in third grade at a youth league game. Almost immediately the coach knew she was Madison Camden scored a game-high 31 points and became Glenwood's alltime leading scorer in a 79-40 win over Creston last Tuesday.

Camden hit 10-of-14 shots on the night, including 7-of-10 three-pointers, for her game-high night. Her 1,309 points for her career broke the record of 1,295 points scored by Morgan Lucy from 2009-2012.

With two straight road games coming up for Glenwood, coach Brian Rasmussen said he and Camden's teammates wanted the senior guard to break the record at home.

And she did just that. Camden took a skip pass from Danika Arnold in the third quarter knocked down a threepointer to break Lucy's record.

"She was pretty dialed in," Rasmussen said. "We wanted her to get the school record here. We set her up in position to do that. She was really efficient too. She wasn't just getting a lot of looks, she was efficient and didn't need a lot of shots."

The Rams (13-2 overall, 9-0 in the Hawkeye 10 Conference) wasted little time getting up on the Panthers, opening the game on an 18-6 run.

"That was probably one of our better starts of the season, we haven't been consistent in the first quarter through the year," he said. "This is more the standard we're looking for. I was excited about how focused we were and how we started and built from there."

Caden Johnson had a record-setting night at the free throw line and scored a career-high 30 points in Glenwood's 61-58 win over Creston in boys Hawkeve 10 Conference boys basketball last Tuesday.

Johnson hit 18-of-18 free throws and 6-of-14 shots from the field for his career night. His perfect night at the free throw was a school record.

But it was Creston that played perfect early, taking a 16-6 lead after a quarter. Glenwood (8-7 overall, 5-5 in the conference) would rally in the second frame to trim the Panthers' lead to 30-23 at the break.

In the third quarter the Rams turned up the head defensively and outscored the Panthers 17-10 in the frame to tie the game heading into the fourth

"I thought the second half our defense was much better," said Glenwood coach Curt Schulte. "We held them to 10 points that third quarter. I was really pleased with that.'

Creston shot 43.8 percent from the field (21-of-48) to the Rams' 37.3 percent (19-of-51) but Glenwood was 21of-25 at the line the Panthers' 10-of-15 night and had just eight turnovers.

"We came up with big stops when we needed it and we really took good care of the basketball," he said. "That was a huge key for us also."

Johnson, who was the lone Ram in double figures, hit big shot after big shot in the win. The junior point guard also dished out six assists and grabbed four steals.

"He played a fantastic ballgame," Schulte said.

Cael Tuner led Creston with 18 points and Khalil Sherrod added 13.

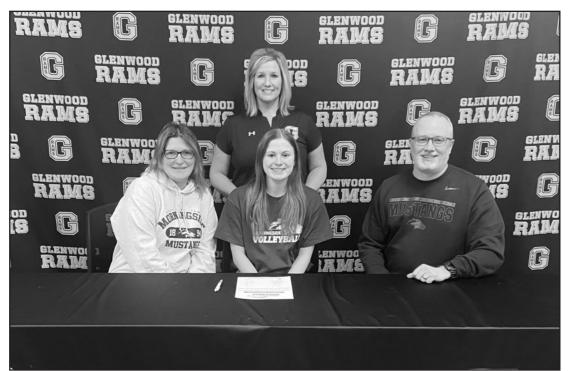

Glenwood's Caden Johnson, shown here earlier this season, hit a school-record 18-of-18 free throws and scored a career-high 30 points in the Rams' win over CrestonFriday.

Lundvall places second at IWCOA state

BY JOEL STEVENS ASSOCIATE EDITOR

Emily Lundvall didn't know what to expect.

The Glenwood sophomore had missed nearly two months of wrestling this season with a back injury. Two weeks ago, she decided to give it a go. On the weekend of Jan. 22, she was competing at the Iowa Wrestling Coaches and Officials Association Girls State Wrestling Tournament in Coralville.

"I came into the tournament with the goal to get back on the mat but I didn't have any big goals," Lundvall said. "I just wanted to finish my match without much pain and I ended up being pretty motivated to be out there and doing how I did."

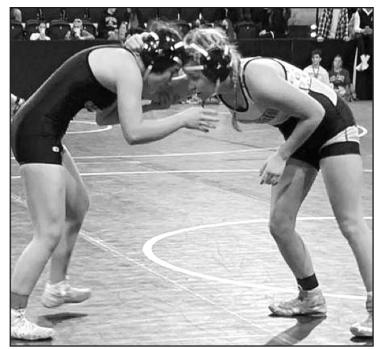

All Lundvall "did" was finish as the runner-up in her 125-pound silver weight division. A finish that surprised even Lundvall.

She got in just three matches prior to the state tournament.

"It was not fun taking that time off," she said. "When I came back I was to the point there wasn't anything (physically) wrong with me, I just needed to learn to deal with the pain. I was rusty and slow but I was moving around in less pain than I was."

It was hard to see that "rust" on the mat.

After receiving a first round bye, she pinned Mid-Prairie's Emil Harmston and Hadley Boshart of Gilbert to reach the finals. But a quick attack by Addy Appelhans of Anamosa was too much for Lundvall to overcome. She fell by first period pin.

Glenwood sophmore Emily Lundvall (right) grapples with Gilbert's Hadley Boshart in the state semifinals. Lundvall would go on to win the match to advance to the 125-pound finals.

"I wanted to get out there and do my best," Lundvall said, adding she was at first disappointed she was seeded into the lower, silver bracket. "I was bummed but it was nothing to be ashamed of. It was great to just be back and be able to wrestle in the first place."

This is Lundvall's second year wrestling. But the sport runs in the family. Both of her younger brothers have wrestled since they were young and dad Dane Lundvall won a state championship for Glenwood in 1995.

"I watched my brothers wrestle a lot and just decided I'd give it a shot last year," she said.

As a freshman last season, Lundvall won her first match at state before dropping her next two to finish outside the medal stand.

Lundvall was happy to learn she won't need surgery on her back. She plans to wrestle freestyle with Powerhouse Wrestling Club in Council Bluffs this off-season before joining the Rams' fledgling girls wrestling team. The Girls High School Athletic Union Board of Directors voted unanimously early this month to sanction girls wrestling as the organization's 11th sport. Competition will begin next season.

"I am very excited to see how our team can grow," Lundvall said. "I know a lot of girls probably don't go out because they don't want to wrestle boys but now that we're sanctioned I think we'll get a lot of girls and we'll have a good team. We have a chance to make history and I'm super excited to see how it goes.'

"I would probably have predicted right there she was going to have this career to some degree at that age," he said. "She's been a pretty special basketball player for some time. She's always been really talented with the ball but in her high school career she's brought so many things to the game other than just shooting. She makes people around her better. She distributes the ball very well. She can play a lot of different roles and positions. She's so much more than just a knockdown shooter."

The 31-point night wasn't unusual for Camden, who is averaging a team-best 20.1 points per game this season. She's been on a scoring tear lately. She set a new single game scoring record Jan. 21 with a 40-point night against Red Oak.

"I have definitely felt good, we've been getting up a lot of shots at practice and I've been shooting a lot lately on my own, so I think that's paying off," she said.

Camden is also feeling better. She tore an ACL in her knee prior to her junior year but waited until last March to have surgery which kept her out of the first five games this season. While she still has some soreness the knee is "not nearly as bad as it was at the start of the season."

"It was very hard," she said of sitting out. "But my teammates were always supportive and told me it would be worth when I get to come back and play for the first time this season.

She scored 18 points in her first game back, a 66-45 win over Harlan. She also leads the Rams with 33 three-pointers.

Camden can't tell you where her first varsity points came. She can tell you she never quite imagined she would reach the scoring record although it was definitely a goal, she said.

"I didn't know if I'd reach it, but I was going to try," she said.

She's been playing basketball since kindergarten and was involved in volleyball and track before focusing on rehab and basketball the last two seasons. She has signed with Peru State to play basketball next year. She loved the Bobcat coaches, the campus and the fact the program stuck with her following her injury.

"It (the injury) didn't seem to bother them whatsoever so that was nice," she said.

Knowing her name is going to be etched on the Rams' all-time records wall is "exciting," she said.

Assistant Coach Bryan Diekmann finals, Camden said, has been a big approached in the hallway the day after she broke the record and asked, "Do you feel any different today?"

"I said, 'A little bit. It's super exciting. But Camden isn't planning to rest on her laurels. She and her Ram teammates are chasing bigger goals. Glenwood is currently ranked No. 1 in Class 4A and chasing their third straight state tournament trip. Last year's loss in the state motivator this season.

"I feel really good with how things are going but every team always has something that they need to strive for, to work on getting better at as a team," she said. "We're working on playing more together as a team and showing up more on the defensive end. And communication. It's the little thing that can make us for sure be able to get back to where we were last year

"It has been a while since we have been able to do so." Raymond said. "I give our kids a ton of credit for showing some toughness. We are down a few players due to injuries and eligibility. Our defensive effort was excellent. For the most part we have been good all year defensively, we just need to hit some shots.

Raymond said Malcom was the difference.

"He has really improved on the offensive end and did a great job on the defensive end," Raymond said of Malcom, who scored the Knights first 13 points. "He was super aggressive with the drive and put us on his back in the first half."

Brady Owen added six points and seven assists and Kyler Owen chipped in six points for the Knights.

"The twin guards shot with confidence and even though they had shots that didn't drop, they made crucial ones and continued to shoot with confidence," Raymond said. "I also though their ability to contain dribble penetration was a big part of our success."

Resisting the temptation to be discouraged

nity to chat with a wonderful lady as she shared with me about her health issues and other concerns. Suddenly she stopped and wanted to know if she could ask me a serious Religion Columnist question. I said of course, and she proceeded to relay that she felt silly asking me about salvation, especially with her she was a child. She wanted to know how she can know that she is going to heaven? I do not believe this is anything to be embarrassed about, in fact, it's rather common as I examine my own heart and soul often. I could sense the heaviness of doubt was stealing her spiritual joy, and this stress can escalate into fear and anxiety. I spent some time reminding her about the spiritual fundamentals of faith and salvation.

being a church member since

Recently, I had an opportu-

I suggested that she be honest with God and tell Him how she feels. After I left, I continued to think about how easy it is for any of us to drift away from the peaceful harbor of hope and spiritual confidence and how important it is to keep a positive perspective and remain focused on God's perfect truth that can never fail.

The opposite of peace is being anxious and we often experience fear and worry when we are uncertain about what is going to happen. This negative energy has the intention to consume us and control our mind and will continue to haunt us until we choose to battle against it. Spiritual warfare is a reality, and it's the believer's responsibility to call on the Lord for help as we defend against being overLIVING ON PURPOSE

whelmed by the darkness of panic, pity, and depression.

Living in divine peace is not something that happens naturally and like optimism is a learned behavior. People or circumstances cannot dictate our thoughts unless we allow it. Everyone is held accountable for their choices with how they respond and react to every situation. We realize we need to trust God and that He calls us to stand strong in times of adversity, but this state of mind will require persistent prayer and self-discipline.

Faith believes that nothing surprises God which includes Him understanding the trials and pain we are suffering. Being convinced that Christ will intervene and provide for us along with accepting that His authority and power is greater than any problem that might threaten us will bring comfort and assurance. Constantly reminding ourselves that God is listening and that He is aware of everything that is going on in our lives is the path to trusting and resting in His perfect peace and security.

Psalm 29:11 declares, "The Lord will give strength to his people; the Lord will bless his people with peace." There is no greater confidence or joy than to be filled with God's presence. Spiritual peace is far beyond our physical emotions as His ways are higher than our ways and His thoughts are higher than our thoughts. His love and compassion is stronger than what is tormenting us and chases away our worries and distress as He floods our hearts with courage and fortitude.

Be encouraged today, Jesus is victorious and His promises are guaranteed to quiet our soul and replace our restlessness with safety, confidence, and calm. Proverbs 3:24 reminds us, "When you lie down, you will not be afraid; when you lie down, your sleep will be sweet." One of the many names for Jesus is the Prince of Peace and soon He will return and establish His kingdom of purity and joy for all eternity. We celebrate this truth and look forward to experiencing the freedom from conflict and chaos, but we do not need to wait until then to embrace this lifestyle of trust and hope.

If we choose to abide in God's presence no matter how intense the storms are raging, we are safe under the shadow of His protection. The world is growing darker but the increase in confusion cannot diminish God's truth on which we stand. It's only when we drift away from His promises and lean on our understanding that we become troubled and perplexed. Give him your worries in exchange for His tranquility.

SUDOKU

Level: Beginner

Fun By The Numbers Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
