Glenwood's Kayden Anderson and Tyler Harger picked up an eighth-place finish at the Iowa State Singles and Doubles Tennis Tournament at Brynes Park in Waterloo last Wednesday.

The Rams' No. 1 double duo went 2-3 at state, winning their opener before falling to the consolation bracket before fighting their way back to the medal stand. Anderson and Harger dropped an intense 7-6 (4), 1-6, 10-4 battle to LeMars' Michael Meis and Evan Pratt in the seventh-place match.

The Rams' other state qualifying doubles duo, Ben Batten and Brody Taylor, dropped their opening round match to Pella's Jack Briggs and Joshua Rozeboom 6-0, 6-0 and then fell to Grinnell's Tamer Bush and Ben Jelne 2-6, 6-4, 8-10 in the consolation bracket to end their stay at

In their state opener, Anderson and Tyler Harger defeated a familiar foe in Denison's Wyatt Johnson and Carson Seuntjens, 2-6, 6-4, 6-3 to advance. But in the second round the Ram duo fell 6-2, 6-2 setback to Decorah's Landon Baker and Daniel Skrade to drop to the consolation bracket.

Anderson and Harger went 1-1 in the consolation bracket to reach the seventhplace match against the LeMars' pair.

"It was a blast to get to watch the guys compete at the state level," said Glenwood coach Grant Stivers. "We were fortunate enough to compete against really good tennis players, it was also a great experience for them to watch highly competitive matches and see what top level talent in the state looks like. Always good to see how you can improve your game, definitely a great way to end your season at the state tournament."

Anderson and Harger are the third Ram duo to place at the state tennis tournament.

Glenwood's Tyler Harger combined with Kayden Anderson to place eighth at the state single and double tennis tournament.

Rams' season ends in substate finals

By JOEL STEVENS ASSOCIATE EDITOR

Nearly a year to the day since Adel-DeSoto-Minburn ended Glenwood's 2022 season, the Tigers had the upper hand once again as they ended the Rams' 2023 postseason run with a 2-1 victory in the Class 2A, Region 2 substate finals last Thursday

The Rams got on the board first with a free kick by Nora Dougherty and took a 1-0 lead into halftime. But the Tigers (10-8) responded with two second half goals while pitching a second half shutout defensively.

"While I'm disappointed that we didn't advance to state, I'm so impressed with the season the girls had," said Glenwood coach Amy Benson. "The girls worked as a team all season to get better. We will definitely miss this group of seniors as they embark on their college adventures. They made Glenwood a better team and have helped set the foundation for years to come."

The Tigers scored their first goal off a deflected shot booted in by Jada Grove and then Grove added the gamewinner in the 77th minute off a free kick.

Glenwood could never quite get its offense clicking in the second half.

"We definitely had chances to score but couldn't find a way to get another one in," Benson said. "The girls gave it everything they had.'

Glenwood snapped an eight-game losing streak to Council Bluffs Lewis Central and advanced to within a victory of the state tournament with a thrilling 1-0 win over the Titans in Class 2A, Region 7 girls soccer in Council Bluffs last Tuesday.

"The win means so much for our team," said Glenwood coach Amy Benson. "LC is definitely a rivalry matchup and they have had 'our number' for many years now. It felt amazing to be able to redeem our regular season loss to them. We have known for years now that this team has had it in them."

The Rams, who entered having lost eight straight to the Titans, including a 4-0 setback this season, battled from the opening kick-off on LC's home field. Each team had their chances but neither could breakthrough offensively in the first half.

The second half was much of the same until the 51st when the Rams found a seam. Nora Dougherty instigated the offense by dribbling into the 18-yard box before dropping an assist to a streaking Molly Williams. Williams' shot sliced just past the Titan keeper on the

The Glenwood boys soccer team's season came to an end last Wednesday in a 3-1 loss to Perry in the Class 2A, District 8 substate finals.

The No. 8 ranked Rams found themselves in a 2-0 first half hole against the No. 6 Bluejays (11-7) and could never quite dig out.

"The first 20 minutes, we were pressing and doing what we talked about doing, driving at them and pressing their outside backs so they couldn't joint their attack and it worked there," said Glenwood coach Cort Lovato. "We weren't able to finish. We had good shots and some set pieces we weren't able to put on frame and they were able to turn the momentum on a first goal really off a missed clearance by our backline. The second goal was the same thing.'

The score would remain 2-0 into the 67th minute when the Rams finally connected on their attack and Caden Johnson cut the score in half with a goal.

Hoping to get into their attack quicker the final 10 minutes, Lovato adjusted his formation to press higher on the Bluejays defense and in that brief moment, Glenwood got out of position, and it was costly.

"We got isolated on the backside with our two central backs and they were able to get one through," Lovato said of the Bluejays' insurance goal. "The little things we did all season we didn't do against them. It's frustrating. That was

Both teams would see chances to add to the offense over the final minute, but nothing would find the back of the net. An aggressive Titan attack that seemed to dominate possession at times had more than their fair share of chances but time and again, the Glenwood defense and goalkeeper Audrey Nieman denied them. "It was great to have another clean sheet from our defense and our goalkeeper," Benson said. "Audrey has really stepped in and played an integral role in our defensive end. She became our starter after our other keeper was out due to injury. She was willing to step up for the team and fill that role and she has done a really nice job of that."

After surrendering four goals in that April loss to the Titans, the Rams pitched a shutout in regionals. But Benson can't credit that to any broad strategic changes on her part but rather a few minor personnel tweaks.

"We did not change anything defensively specifically for this game with the exception of trying to mark (Titan striker) Gracie Hays closer. We had our center midfielder, Faith Weber, do that and she did a great job. We made some defensive changes earlier this season. We started to make adjustments due to injuries. We

■ East Mills struggled through a 3-16 season last year with a young, mostly inexperienced team. This year, the Wolverines have an entire roster with a year of experience under their belts. Back are leading hitters Nadia Gray (.311), Kiley Barrett (.293, 13 RBIs) and Emily Williams (.263) that form a strong core to their lineup. Pitching will be a question mark as Williams, Mia Urban and Dayann McGrew all saw action in the circle a year ago. Urban started 12 games with McGrew starting five and Williams two. Life is an ongoing transformation process

I was at my daughter's home a few years ago doing some painting, and yes, these are things that retired fathers are happy to do. She was in another room organizing a closet while listening to some music and the Michael Jackson song,

"The Man in the Mirror" was playing. I listened intently. Certain songs occasionally stick in our heads and I sensed the Lord speaking to me about this profound message.

We all have mirrors in our homes and they are generally used to make sure our hair and clothes look presentable or if we have barbecue sauce on our face, but there is also a deeper thought about reflecting when we consider what type of person we are on the inside. Spiritual transformation comes when we are convicted to examine our conscience which is exactly what God has been trying to communicate to us since the beginning. You see, we are born with a default spirit that must be changed.

The chorus of the song says, "I'm starting with the man in the mirror, I'm asking him to change his ways." Actually, God is the one demanding for us to change, but a critical component within this process is that first, we must see our need to yield our will to Him. Until the desire to change becomes stronger than our desire to remain the same, satisfaction with our default existence will continue.

Each week I encounter people that are in different stages of their journey and part of my mission as a minister and counselor is to help and encourage them however the Lord leads. One of the strongest obstacles when it comes to letting go of what we want and embracing what God wants is an aggressive passion to protect our position as the master of our own destiny. Individuals might listen to motivational messages to improve their lifestyles, but many modern churches are failing to explain God's demand for sanctification. For Christ to be our Lord, our carnal nature must die.

LIVING ON PURPOSE

Most people are familiar with the word covenant and realize that it is a binding agreement between two parties. God made His blood covenant promise when He sent Jesus to die on the cross to pay for our sins. However, accepting this offer of forgiveness is not the complete idea of salvation. It is God's side of the contract. Since Jesus gave Himself for us, our promise within this covenant is to give ourselves to Him. Without a complete transformation of our spirit and mind, we are playing religious games.

Colossians 2:20 talks about being crucified with Christ, yet abiding in Him and allowing Him to control our new life. In chapter 3 and verse 3, God declares to those who are born again, "For you died to this life, and your real life is hidden with Christ in God." Romans 6:11 says, "Likewise In the same way, count yourselves dead to sin but alive to God in Christ Jesus. Therefore, do not let sin reign in your mortal body so that you obey its evil desires. Many will say I raised my hand when asked who wants to go to heaven, but it was not explained that I am to be possessed by Him. Grace is an opportunity to love and serve God, but was never intended to be a license to live however we want.

It seems the new comfortable way of celebrating salvation is being relieved that God rescued us from eternal death, while ignoring the need to examine our soul to see if He is pleased with our dedication and responsibility to this covenant. A fundamental difference between many people and the story of the rich young ruler is that he truly believed what Jesus said about the conditions to be a child of God. He walked away depressed because surrendering his will was just too painful. Today, many evidently do not believe God's warnings and walk away content to follow their own opinions and philosophies.

God loves us and invites us to love Him, but He has no intention of allowing us to remain the same. The last few verses in Matthew chapter 16 remind us about taking up our cross which is a symbol of a torturous death. Again, this is about sacrificing our deprayed nature so that Christ can be our Master. "You mean believing there is a God is not enough to be saved?" No.

Joshua Rowan inducted into collegiate honor society

Joshua Rowan of Glenwood was recently initiated into The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi, the nation's oldest collegiate honor society. Rowan was initiated at the University of Nebraska-Kearney.

Rowan is among approximately 25,000 students, faculty, professional staff and alumni to be initiated into Phi Kappa Phi each year. Membership is by invitation only and requires nomination and approval by a chapter. Only the top 10 percent of seniors and 7.5 percent of juniors are eligible for membership.

Abigail Schultz receives lowa Business College award

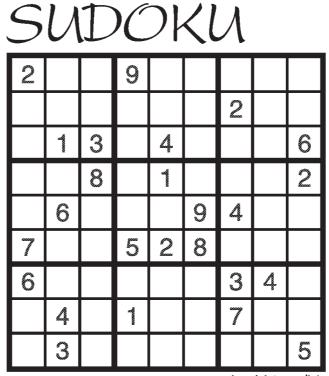

Abigail Schultz of Glenwood is one of 23 students enrolled in the Henry B. Tippie College of Business at the University of Iowa who received an award presented by the Department of Accounting. Schultz received the Department of Accounting Faculty Scholar Award, which is presented to students who have demonstrated superior academic performance and contributions to the Department of Accounting while completing an undergraduate accounting major.

Central College students from SWI awarded degrees

The following students from southwest Iowa received degrees during spring commencement exercises at Centrall College in Pella:

Trevor Glockel of Malvern earned a bachelor's degree majoring in Accounting and Economics; Tyler Peterson of Emerson earned a bachelor's degree majoring in Kinesiology; and Mason Vanatta of Randolph earned a bachelor's degree majoring in Accounting and Business Management.

Fun By The Numbers Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
